

The Academy of Psychosomatic Medicine

RESEARCH AWARD NOMINATION FORM

APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 1

The APM Research Award honors an individual studying psychopathology in the medically ill and is intended to recognize a currently active researcher in the field. Nominations may be made by candidates or others on their behalf and will be reviewed by the Research Committee. The recipient will be asked to give a 45-minute lecture at the Academy's fall scientific meeting. The award will cover the recipient's costs to attend the meeting and an additional unrestricted monetary award.

The completed nomination should be sent to:
